DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1) An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Edward A. Kmett (Reg No 42,746) on 4/7/05.

The application has been amended as follows:

17. The document control system according to [claim 16] claim 11, wherein said keeping means of said document control apparatus keeps an electronic document that is frequently accessed from the external apparatus for a predetermined period and in a fixed volume, and wherein said temporary access allowing means allows the temporary access to the stored electronic document based on a predetermined charge different from a regular charge for accessing the document.

Allowable Subject Matter

2) The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Prior art teaches a computer implemented document control apparatus/system/method/storage means for storing and controlling electronic documents accessible from an external apparatus. Specifically, the prior art teaches a registering means for registering electronic documents to a storage, the electronic documents being transmitted from an external transmitting apparatus, period controlling means for storing information of a document control period of the electronic documents registered by said registering means, access prohibiting means for prohibiting means for prohibiting access from the external apparatus to the electronic document whose document control period has expired and transferring means for transferring the electronic document to the external apparatus based on a user request.

The Prior art fails to teach a computer implemented document control apparatus/system/method/storage means for storing and controlling electronic documents accessible from an external apparatus comprising: keeping means for keeping the electronic documents in the storage for a predetermined period even after the document control period of the electronic document has expired, period updating means for updating the document control period for an extension of the document control period based on a user confirmation, temporary access allowing means for allowing temporary access to the electronic document whose document control period has expired based on a predetermined charge and the transferred electronic document is a document whose document control period has not expired, a document whose document control period has been extended by said period updating means, or a document to which temporary access has been allowed by said temporary access allowing means. These limitations, when taken as combination and in conjunction with each other provide for the allowable subject matter.

3) Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
